

Andersson Bell

About the collection

This Fall Winter 2020 collection was inspired by attractive American singer-songwriter Janis Joplin's hippie style in the Monterey Pop Festival held in 1967. Playing with structures, deconstructed tailored blazers, colorful cable-knit sweaters, panelled trousers, and pleated midi dresses are some of the highlights from their much anticipated collection.