RIZMAN RUZAINI RETURNS TO JAKARTA FASHION WEEK WITH ‘LEMARI NYONYA’

For its second Jakarta Fashion Week show, the Malaysian couture house presents an extended edition of its collection, inspired by the colours and motifs of Malaysia’s Peranakan porcelain.

JAKARTA, INDONESIA — Rizman Ruzaini returns to Jakarta Fashion Week for its second show, bringing an extended presentation of Lemari Nyonya to the Jakarta runway. First introduced at Kuala Lumpur Fashion Week, the collection arrives in Jakarta with a special extension created for this presentation.

Inspired by the beauty of Malaysia’s Peranakan porcelain, Lemari Nyonya draws on its distinctive colour palettes and decorative motifs, translating them into contemporary couture. Intricate beadwork adds texture and dimension to each piece, with every detail designed and handcrafted by the house’s talented beaders and artisans in Kuala Lumpur.

The Jakarta presentation continues Rizman Ruzaini’s two decades long exploration of the region’s rich cultural heritage through its own couture language—honouring the artistry of the past while creating work that speaks to the present. With Lemari Nyonya, the house brings this heritage to the runway not as a reference preserved in time, but as a living source of creativity, craftsmanship and expression.

ABOUT RIZMAN RUZAINI
